Aztec Group Appoints Brell Tarich as Senior Associate, Expands CRE and Finance Services

Aztec Group, Inc., Florida's leading real estate investment and merchant banking firm for more than 37 years, announces the hiring of Brell Tarich. As a Senior Associate, Mr. Tarich will focus on advising clients on commercial real estate debt, equity, and investment sale transactions. He will also be responsible for transaction origination, underwriting, and deal placement.

"We are excited to add Brell to our team as his depth of expertise in the commercial real estate and finance industries will provide added value to Aztec Group's clients," said Charles Penan, Executive Vice President of Aztec Group.

Prior to joining Aztec Group, Mr. Tarich spent three years at Rialto Capital as a Senior Associate in its Miami office, focusing on portfolio management and underwriting and overseeing the litigation of its small balance loans for non-performing assets. He also spent one year practicing real estate law.

Aztec Group serves the real estate industry as a source of capital and transactional expertise for developers, managers, institutional and entrepreneurial clients. Aztec continually outperforms national real estate companies in structuring the entire capital stack, ranging from equity to preferred equity to bridge and construction financing as well as permanent loans.

Mr. Tarich graduated cum laude from the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in finance. After graduating with honors from the Florida State University College of Law, Tarich was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2013.
